GEORGE VOLLER B.S., M.A.

The class of 1966 is proud to dedicate this year's Vignette to Mr. George Voller who, until this year was a member of the Arts High faculty and our guidance counselor for three years.

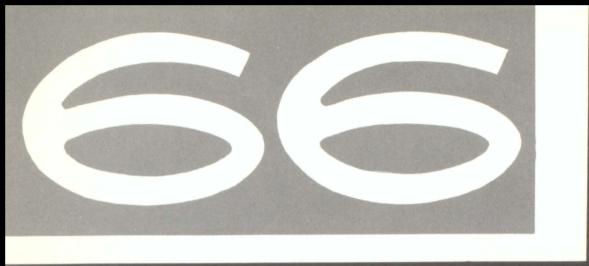

Mr. Voller has always done a tremendous job in understanding and helping young people. The students' confidence in him was reflected in the way they never hesitated to ask him for help with all their problems. With Mr. Voller's help you could be certain you would be able to find a college if you really wanted a college education. All he asked was for you to help yourself and really have the ambition to further your education.

He understood young people and their problems. He was a teacher twenty-four hours a day. Although the words have become trite, he was a truly and is a truly dedicated teacher.

ADMINISTRATION

DR. HARRY LEWIS
Ph.D.
Principal

For three years, Dr. Lewis has been the "guiding light" of Arts High School. During this time he has never failed to live up to the students' and the faculty's confidence in him. He has exhibited his characteristic forthrightness, enthusiasm for his work, and seemingly endless amount of patience to promote the general welfare of the school.

Without a doubt, Dr. Lewis is thoroughly qualified for the sometimes taxing job of being principal. After graduation from Bloomfield High School, he received his B.A. and M.A. from Montclair State College and his Ph.D. from New York University. For a time Dr. Lewis taught mathematics at Ivy Junior High and at West Side High School. In addition to helping prepare student teachers at New York University, he taught actuarial students for the New York Actuaries Club. He has been a member of the Newark Board of Examiners. Before coming to Arts High, he was chairman of the Mathematics Department of East Side High School.

The goal set by Dr. Lewis for Arts High is the stimulation of the student body and faculty to greater heights of academic achievement. Plans are in progress for the creation of more honors classes and for the provision of more modern facilities for the school. Dr. Lewis has been trying to make the citizens of Newark very conscious and proud of the high standards set and achieved by Arts High School in the art, music, and academic fields.

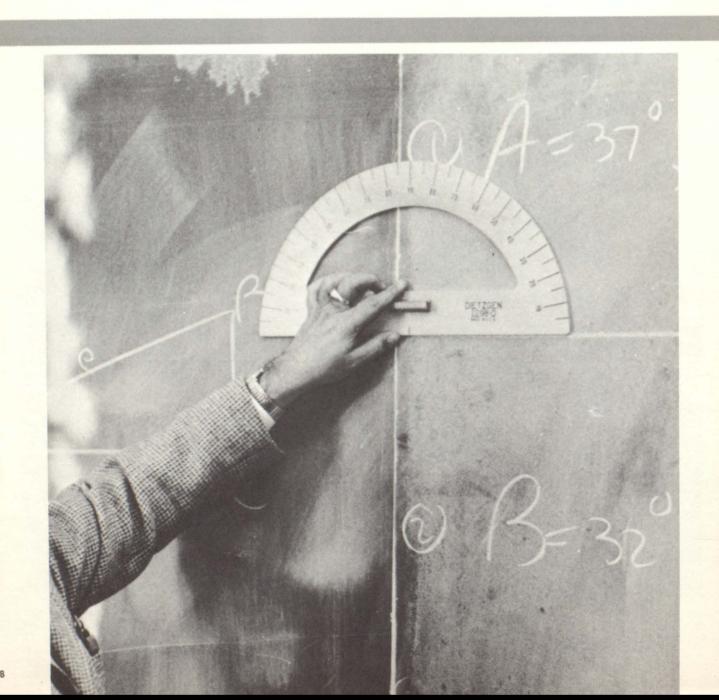

by PAT A. RESTAINO B.S., M.Ed. Vice-Principal

Education is an eye-opener. If it serves any purpose it serves to sharpen one's view of life's episodes and to bring into more meaningful perspective the daily events of our time. The talented artist can see line, color, light, and impression that escape those less able and less trained. So, too, the well-educated man can see more in the panorama of life than his less fortunate neighbor. The poorly educated man sees only fragments of those human scenes he experiences. All too frequently, he misses that which is subtle, is insensitive to nuance, and blind to that which is foreign. So much of life just passes him by. Your school education has improved your vision but it has not developed its full potential. There are always flaws and blurs and this is why your education does not end here. Rather it is a life-long process. The only corrective prescription for mental myopia is a life devoted to learning more each passing day.

The dancers portray a living carousel.

CAROUSEL

One of the greatest accomplishments of each school year in Arts High is the production of the annual opera. Last spring Carousel proved a tremendous success. The entire Music Department—Mr. Rocco Pesile, head of the department and the orchestra conductor, Mr. William Pickett, chorus director, Mrs. Gertrude Shapiro, and Mr. Gerald Tobia—spent many hours in organizing and rehearsing the show. The Art Department earned many thanks in designing the sets and costumes for Carousel, and Mrs. Hiller and the home economics classes skillfully brought their costume designs into actual existence. In Carousel, a carnival visits a small American town at the beginning of the twentieth century. Its handsome barker, Billy Bigelow, marries one of the local girls, Julie Jordan. But both lose their jobs. Billy, far from honest, determines to join two friends in a robbery. Faced with capture and imprisonment, he stabs himself to death. After his suicide Julie lives only for her little girl. In a poignant final scene of Carousel, fifteen years later at the girl's graduation, Billy is present, although invisible to Julie or their daughter.

With its famous songs, beautiful dances, colorful costumes, and interesting story Carousel was one of Arts High's most successful operettas.

CLASS OF 1966

SENIOR FACULTY

MR. CALVIN

Mr. Calvin has had extensive training in his field as a mathematics teacher. He was awarded his B.A. degree at Kansas State College and his M.A. dagree at Columbia University. Mr. Calvin has also had summer fellowships at Montclair State College, at Hunter College in New York City, and at Rensselear Polytechnical Institute, Troy, New York.

His interests include traveling, reading, swimming, fishing, and working with young people. For two of the four years he has been at Arts High School, Mr. Calvin has been our class advisor. He has given unstintingly of his time to the Class of 1966. As a result, Mr. Calvin says, "It has been challenging but a good chance to meet more students and to gain valuable experience."

MISS ABOS

Miss Abos is one of the best known magicians at Arts High. Every four years she takes a formless mass of freshmen and before you know it she has transformed them into a group of respectable seniors. With great determination she strives to make each class her best. No one can forget the fiery discussions or the piercing tests which made Miss Abos' class an adventure. An avid supporter of school functions, her bright green hat can usually be seen on the sidelines of an Arts basketball game. Being the advisor of the cheering squad doesn't stop her from doing a lot of cheering herself. Energetic, demanding, sometimes strict, but always understanding are the things we will remember and miss when we think of Miss Abos

MISS DAVID

Miss David as advisor of the National Honor Society has brought that organization to a high level of usefulness, achievement, and efficiency. Her Spanish classes receive a thorough training in that language. Miss David's quotations that are part of the opening exercises of each assembly program are always very appropriate and unforgettable. Her sense of humor has made both her homeroom and her classes very enjoyable.

MRS. TSO

Although she has been teaching at Arts High School for only two years, Mrs. Tso is not a newcomer. While studying here as an art major, she was editor of the Scope and the Vignette, and captain of the fencing team. Upon her graduation she was given the Bamberger Medal for Scholarship and was also given the honor of delivering the salutatorian address. She attended Newark State Teachers College, Columbia University, and the Art Students League. As advisor of the Dance Club she has introduced a new and enjoyable activity to Arts High. Mrs. Tso, whose wit and charm have greatly impressed her students, will always be appreciated by those fortunate enough to know her.

MRS. NEUSS

Mrs. Neuss, as homeroom teacher of 207, has managed to cope successfully with these "lively" children in the most trying situations. After four years, her spirit of dedication is undaunted and it is, we, the seniors, who have mellowed. Her English classes were made unforgettable by the sparkling wit which she always displayed. Mrs. Neuss is an all-around wonderful person, a "perfect gem."

At the conclusion of the dignified and inspiring ceremony new and old members pose with our administrators, the guest of honor, the group's first advisor, Mr. Philip Clamurro, and retired vice-principal Min M. Bernice Hamilton, and President Charles Smith and Miss David.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

In a beautiful blue and gold setting, designed by Mr. Milton Knobler, new members stand at attention as Vice-President Esther Wilcox reads the names of the new inductees from the Membership Book. The Membership Book contains year by year listing of all the names of members from 1948 to the present.

At the reception President Charles Smith offers his best wishes to new member Linda Schaad. Linda's parents enjoy the moment also. One of the important, unforgettable, and impressive assemblies of the school year is the National Honor Society Induction Ceremony. It is traditional that this assembly has an element of surprise because no one knows who the new members of the National Honor Society are to be. Each new member is inducted in the beautiful, original, ceremony which is prepared and directed by Miss David, the advisors, and the National Honor Society's members. After the assembly, the mood shifts to one of relaxation and enjoyment at a reception sponsored by the society in the gallery for the present and new members, their parents, and the faculty.

Along with other service activities the National Honor Society accomplishes a great deal by tutoring Arts High students in major subjects. The selection of new members, with ideals of service, scholarship, leadership, and character, by the faculty keeps the National Honor Society on a very high level of importance and achievement.

The 1966 membership certificates were awarded by Miss M. Bernice Hamilton for whom the group is named. A new inductee, Ron Cadmus receives her warm congratulations.

Miss David has a happy handclasp, and a friendly welcome for each guest as he arrives at the reception.

Senior Geraldine Jenkins directs the newly named inductees to the table where they are saluted and pinned by seniors Erica Mohrlang and Faye Witcher.

FACULTY-SENIOR

. . . And a karate chop to the mid-section.

"Aw, Larry—take it easy."

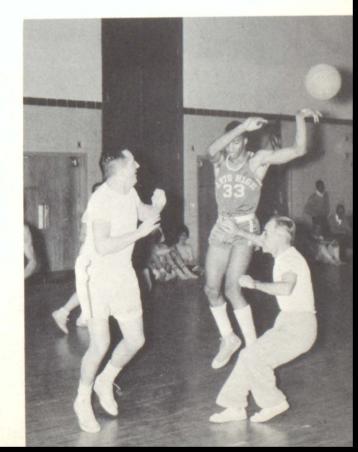

VARSITY GAME

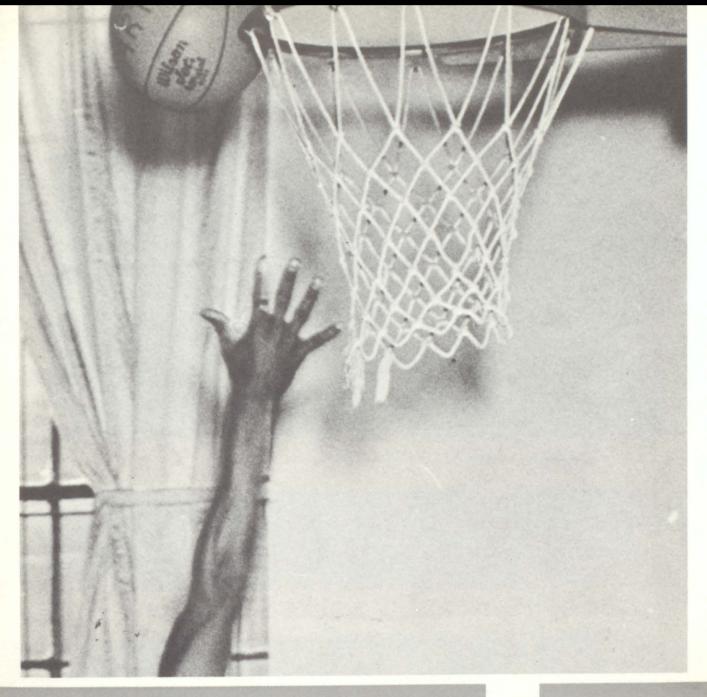

"I've heard about the game going to someone's head but this is ridiculous."

A very enjoyable activity of the school year is the annual Faculty-Varsity game. This year, the faculty squad, as usual, won with its dazzling skill and fast footwork. Excitement, as well as entertainment, filled every moment of the game. An enjoyable dance followed the famous game.

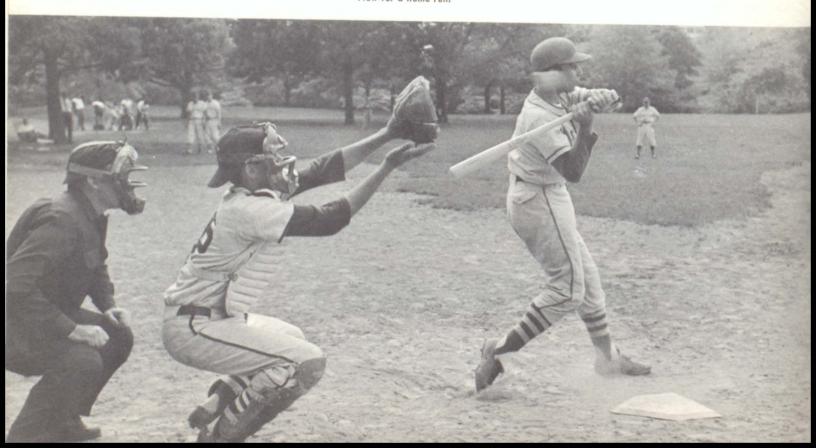

"Don't get discouraged! The game hasn't even started!"

The baseball team, coached by Mr. Lang, suffered from the loss of some of its valuable players through graduation. The season was not the best in the history of the team, but it was not the worst, by far. Mr. Lang feels that the season of rebuilding will be extended one more year because the team is composed mainly of underclassmen. On the chief weakness, pitching, Mr. Lang will concentrate a great deal of effort.

"O-o-o that ball is hot!"

The basketball team of Arts High under Coach Flaherty has been in the process of working towards the excellent record of 1965. Although the team lost several valuable players when the seniors of last year were graduated, the team still had skill and enthusiasm. They scored five victories and ten losses, and there is every hope that in the next few seasons we will have a championship team.

TEAM

The soccer team in 1965 had an excellent record. Because of the enthusiasm and hard work of all the members of this team, this game has become one of the most popular at Arts High. Many of the team members have played two or three seasons and are highly experienced soccer players.

SWIMMING

Boy, that water looks dirty!!

"What'll we do now?"

Help, I'm drowning!

"This is for the birds."

TEAM

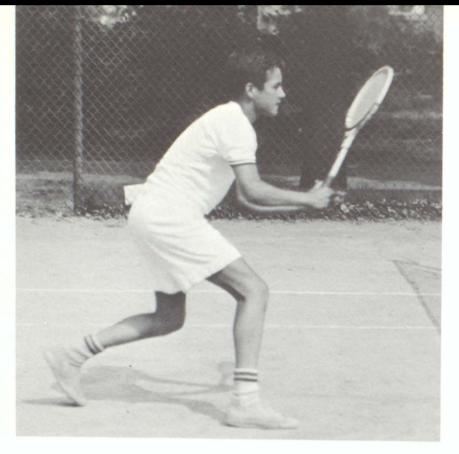

This year our swimming team, under the capable guidance of Mr. Knobler, posted a 10-3 won-lost record. The team was "backboned" by seniors, Captain "Chip" Cuidera, John Cortes, and high scorer Bob Cabot.

The highlights of the season were the tremendous dual meet victories over Barringer and East Side. These meets had the spectators clinging to their seats.

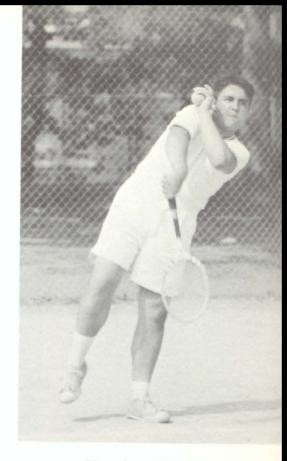

With eight varsity lettermen returning next year, our natators figure on having another tremendous season.

"Now remember we have to win!"

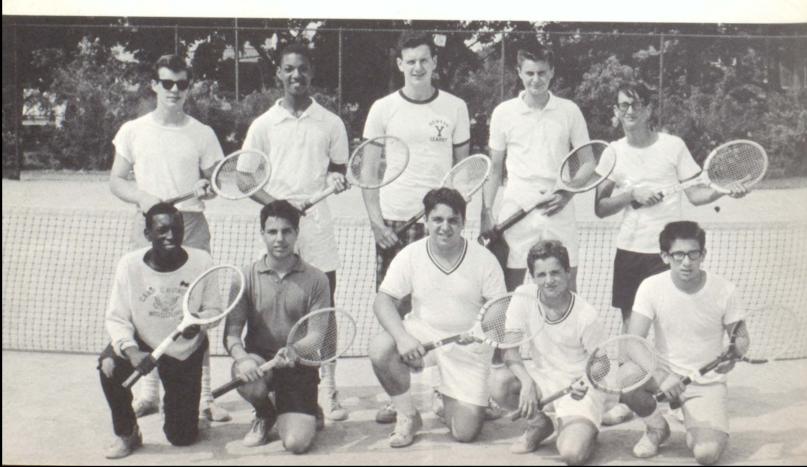

"He will never return that one!"

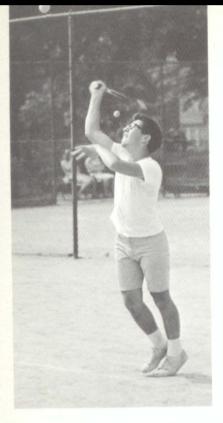

"A good serve if I ever saw one!"

TEAM

A new sport has come to Arts High, tennis. Under the direction of Mr. Feldman, the boys' tennis team opened its first season in the tough competitive city league. The team, with Captain Charles Smith made a fine showing against the city's major high schools, winning two matches, tying one against Barringer High School, and losing four. Leading the team in individual victories was top-seeded Charles Smith, losing only one match, to Vailsburg's first player. Valuable seniors who played with the team and who will be missed are Grover Willcox, Bob Dickson, and Richard Korn. The team is looking optimistically toward the coming season. Bob Mohr, our number two man, Charles Cuidera, Bob Cavallo, Tony Liotti, and their captain are all returning this year to make up the core of our potentially "City Champion" team. Every player displayed fine sportsmanship, enthusiasm, and represented Arts High well.

TRACK

Loneliness of a long distance runner.

The track team, under the direction of Mr. Thomas and Mr. Marcus, turned in a good record for 1964-1965 in individual events. The problem in our scoring concerned our field events. With a strong nucleus coming back in the fall of 1965 plus the promise of eager new members of the team the prospects for the new season are encouraging. Some of the members of last year's team who are returning are Edward Tittel, hurdler, Clarence Jones, sprint man, Alan Struck, Javelin, William Bland, mile, and Ray Rubio, field events.

We wish the new coach, Mr. Marcus, good luck and a winning season.

Everyone who is in this club feels that this sport has an excellent chance to become one of the most popular extracurricular activities at Arts High. Mrs. Donovan, who is the advisor, and the members of Girls' Volleyball are all enthusiastic about this game.

This club has had one of its most successful years in 1965-66 with over twenty enthusiastic members. Its advisor, Mrs. Donovan, is very pleased with the progress in the game shown by the members. The club meets each Wednesday from 3 to 5:30 at the Bowl-O-Mat. A girl, to be eligible to join, must have the consent of her parents and must have accident insurance.

VARSITY

CHEERLEADERS

The Arts High Cheerleaders must maintain good marks even as they practice for many hours. The cheerleaders, who must be present at every Arts High basketball game, also march in several parades in the spring. The two squads, the varsity, and the junior varsity, are chosen each spring by Miss Abos, the advisor, and a panel of teachers. Because of their enthusiasm, the cheerleaders enjoy all the games they attend and meet many new friends. This year they not only went to the basketball games, but also to some soccer games. A varsity letter, received at the end of their second season, is given for their work.

During the spring of 1965, something new was added to the extracurricular program at Arts High. It took a bit of a struggle, but the girls were finally granted permission to start a tennis club. From April through June 22, lovelies practiced twice a week, first at the school and then at Westside Park Courts. Most of the girls were complete novices. Therefore it wasn't surprising that initially much of the time was spent ball chasing. However, by the end of May, we were actually able to play some real tennis.

Charles Smith, captain of the boys' team, helped in the instruction and a number of boys joined the girls for mixed doubles. Much fun was had by all.

ACTORS' WORKSHOP

Organized in 1964, the Actor's Workshop presented its first production, scenes from The Glass Menagerie at an assembly in 1966. Mrs. Stiller and Mr. Stone are the faculty advisors. Any Arts High student is eligible to join the workshop, whose purpose is to develop the dramatic talents of its members.

CRAFTSMAN GROUP

The Craftsmen's Group is composed of both art and music majors. The purposes of this group are a better understanding of the new art forms, and the design and construction of original products. The group, although it has no officers or scheduled meetings, is enthusiastic about the members' many projects. Someone is always working in copper, silver, wood, stained glass, and enamel in Room 308.

One of the features of the group's program that attracts many students are the frequent trips taken to New York and many other art centers. Under the guidance of Mr. Gommoll, the members receive additional information about the latest developments in the world of art.

The main purpose of the Craftsmen's Club in the past year has been to try to beautify the school by exhibiting different projects. Under the direction of Mr. Gommoll, its biggest project has been the construction of the stained glass window in the front hall.

ELECTRONICS CLUB

This small group, organized this year by Mr. Yablick has brought the age of computers and electronics to Arts High School. They hope next year to take a field trip that will help inform them on the tremendous advances being made in the field of electronics. This club certainly has a very bright future!

DANCE CLUB

This club has performed in the program given in the auditorium during the evening of the Winter Fair in 1965 and in the production of Carousel. Although membership in the club requires long hours of rehearsing and of practice, the Dance Club is growing in membership and in enthusiasm. It produced a delightful assembly program of folk dances from several countries in the spring of 1966. The advisor is Mrs. Tso who organized this interesting and enjoyable activity last year.

Everyone enjoyed the sparkling performance of "Fiddler on the Roof" at the winter concert. Mr. Tobia has led the band through a busy year, during which they played in every parade, cold weather or not. This year the band members gave two superlative auditorium concerts. Aside from their regular presentations, a few chosen members have displayed their talents at various Newark elementary schools. We know they will continue to make Arts High proud of them.

Some of its outstanding programs each year are the Thanksgiving Assembly, the Winter and Spring Concerts, the Winter Fair, the opera, the Easter Assembly, and the Kiwanis Club Concert. The Chorus also sings at graduation.

Arts High School is fortunate to have an unusually fine orchestra. Conducted by Mr. Pesile, head of the Music Department, the fifty members are given the opportunity of developing their ability to play an instrument. All members are auditioned by Mr. Pesile. A member of the New Jersey Symphony Orchestra, Mr. Pesile uses his knowledge and experience to teach the orchestra the rudiments of orchestral behavior. Through him these students not only increase their musical skill but also gain a greater appreciation of fine music.

The French Club, under the guidance of Miss Hann, meets every other Tuesday to increase the knowledge and interest of the members in the French people and their culture. This is done through songs, games, dances, and reports. Some members have been able to correspond with students in France. Future plans include increasing the membership and beginning a program of field trips to places such as the French Embassy at the U.N. in New York, and French restaurants. Although most of the club's members are studying French, speaking the language is not a requirement. Regular attendance at meetings and a serious interest in the club's purpose are the essentials for making the French Club continually active. French Club members believe, as did Thomas Jefferson, that "All men have two countries, their own and then, France."

FRENCH CLUB

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

Under the able leadership of Mrs. Gertrude Shapiro, the Girls' Glee Club has become an integral part of the school's music program. Since the number of members is limited, they are selected from interested and qualified music and art majors after an audition. The club meets after school twice a week, on Tuesday and Friday. The girls are given an opportunity to earn extra credits since they are graded instead of being given A-pin credit. In their repertoire the members include songs from popular Broadway shows and movies, American and foreign folk songs and ballads, and many classical compositions. Mrs. Shapiro is to be commended highly for her part in broadening the students' cultural and musical background.

This club performs many useful services under the direction of our librarian, Miss Yuker. Although all grades from freshmen to seniors are represented in the Library Guild, a student, to belong, must have at least a "C" average. Some of the helpful services performed by the members are mending books and magazines, shelving books, typing catalog cards and filing. The members enjoy field trips sponsored by the Guild each year. An additional benefit of the club is valuable experience in library work that may lead to choosing the profession of librarian as a career. A-pin credit is awarded guild members.

MATH CLUB

The program of the Math Club, whose advisor is Miss Osefchen, is interesting and a good deal of fun. The club's activities include mathematics for relaxation, guest speakers, puzzles, and special reports by members. Since mathematics is extremely important in industry, business, science, research, the Math Club stresses math in the modern world. To help achieve this purpose, field trips to offices and to museums are taken each year. The Math Club has increased the prestige of Arts High.

The Observers Club is one of the newest clubs at Arts High. It consists of girls who are diet conscious and interested in observing their loss and gain of weight. These girls set their goals at losing two pounds a week and are usually successful in meeting it. Under the leadership of Mrs. Greene, the girls are able to look forward to better figures.

OBSERVERS

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

The purpose of the Photography Club is to develop skills and talents in this graphic art medium from a fine arts point of view. This club, organized in the fall of 1965 by Mr. Lynch, has twelve members who learn all the processes involved in mastering the art of photography. Next year the members of the club plan to take a field trip to increase their knowledge and interest in photography.

An extremely useful organization, our chapter of the High School Red Cross, whose advisor is Mrs. Hiller, is dedicated to the ideal, "We Serve." The accomplishments of our Red Cross are many. Over two thousand hours of "Volunteer" service are given each year to Newark hospitals, nurseries, and homes for the aged. Tray covers, favors, and presents are made for and given to the same organizations at holiday time. Dozens of cookies are made and sent to the Veterans' Hospital in East Orange. Pajamas, nightgowns, and other clothing are sewn for people left destitute by fire in Newark. Each year four to six delegates are sent (all expenses paid) to Peddie School for a course at the Red Cross Leadership Training Center where they learn leadership skills and have a wonderful time.

In 1962, 1964, and 1965 Parents' Magazine awarded the Arts High School Red Cross an Achievement Award in recognition of its outstanding record of service to the community.

SCOPE

Under the direction of Mr. Green, the Scope has continued to be the date book, soap box, and detailed record of Arts High. This year's staff, mostly juniors, has brought new ideas to the paper. With its never-ending deadlines, our newspaper has a demanding schedule to meet. But it is fortunate in having a hard-working, enthusiastic staff of reporters and editors. Printed every two months, Scope appears with many interesting articles on sports, dances, clubs, student portraits, arts, and music. Its editorials are also of interest. In short, everything and anything that is newsworthy can be found in Scope.

The Arts High Stage Crew has proved to be a tremendous asset to our school. These are the boys who set up the stage before each assembly, change scenery, conduct the public address system, and operate the lighting.

Members are: Cephas Battle, James De Hart, Robert Fischer, Anthony Liotti, Michael McGurty, Richard Nazario, and Edward Tittle.

STUDENT

The Student Council of Arts High is a democratic, representative government, composed of two representatives from each homeroom and one from each club. The Student Council, presided over by the Mayor, meets every Thursday after school. Some of the issues that the Student Council considers are programs such as the very successful International Day of 1966, selection of students who are to receive A-pin awards, the annual Barn Dance, and the Scholarship Dance. One of the very useful and unusual services performed by the Student Council is raising money for the support and education of a South Korean girl named Sook Ja.

SPANISH CLUB

A rapidly growing group, the Spanish Club, whose advisor is Mr. Otero, is a very active organization. Its purpose is to acquaint our students with Latin America and with Spain. The assemblies given by this club create a sparkling atmosphere of the Spanish speaking countries. Our "Spaniards" in their meetings learn to sing songs in Spanish and to dance in Spanish too! A student does not even have to know how to say "Ole! Ole!" to join this delightful club.

One of the interesting activities of Arts High is the Vignette, produced each year. The yearbook, which calls for skills in art, photography, literary composition, typing, and in keeping financial records, is produced by the students.

The senior commercial art majors handle the layout and art of the yearbook. The advisors are Mr. Knobler, Mr. Shapiro, and Mrs. Furst. Although there are several deadlines to meet, the activity of producing the yearbook covers most of the school year.
